

Technical Professionals, BDPA NEEDS YOU

By volunteering; BDPA can help you advance your career in the IT profession. We give professionals, executives, entrepreneurs and students an IT career pathway from the "Classroom to the Boardroom."

Through education, mentoring, services and business networking; BDPA promotes innovation, technical skills, business savvy and personal growth.

Please apply online to the available volunteer positions listed below by selecting the BDPA Career Center link at www.bdpa.org, follow the job seeker option to the advance search function.

Use one of the corresponding reference numbers:

1471 - Director, Information Technology Institute Birmingham, AL

1468 - Director, National BDPA Community Outreach Reston, VA

1470 - EPP Coordinator-National BDPA Volunteer Dallas, TX

1380 - Manager-National BDPA Student Information Technology Education and Scholarship (SITES) Accreditation Washington, DC

1381 - Manager-College Student Programs Atlanta, GA

1467 - Manager-Black Family Technology Awareness (BFTAW) Cleveland, OH

1469 - Manager-PMI REP Program Chicago, IL

1117 - Volunteer BETF CIO Department Cincinnati, OH

Referrals are Welcome!

Please encourage your referral to review the job postings above.

Questions?? Please email Portia Westbrooks at: profdev@bdpa.org